Attorneys for Plaintiff Red Whale, LLC

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

RED WHALE, LLC, a California limited liability company,

Plaintiff,

v.

BLUE WHALE COFFEE COMPANY LLC, a
Nevada limited liability company; and DOES 1-10, inclusive,

Defendants.

CASE NO.:

COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES AND INJUNCTION

1. Trademark Infringement
2. False Designation of Origin

(JURY DEMAND)

1 Plaintiff Red Whale, LLC ("Red Whale"), for its complaint against defendants
2 Blue Whale Coffee Company LLC ("Defendant") and Does 1 through 10, inclusive, (the 3 "Does," and together with Defendant, "Defendants"), states and alleges as follows.

4 JURISDICTION, PARTIES, AND VENUE

5 Federal Subject Matter Jurisdiction

6 1. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action under 15 U.S.C.
7 §§ 1121 (trademark claims), 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal subject matter jurisdiction), and 8 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a) (trademark actions). This action includes claims for infringement of 9 a trademark registered in the United States Patent and Trademark Office under section 32
10 the Lanham Act (as authorized by 15 U.S.C. § 1114) and for false designation of origin
11 under section 43(a) of the Lanham Act (as authorized by 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)).

12 Parties

13 2. Red Whale is a California limited liability company with its principal 14 place of business in Mill Valley, California.

15 3. Red Whale is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all 16 times relevant hereto Defendant has been a Nevada limited liability company with its 17 principal place of business in Reno, Nevada within this District.

18 4. Red Whale is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that the 19 Does are entities or individuals subject to the Court's jurisdiction. The true names and 20 capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, of the Does are 21 unknown to Red Whale, which therefore sues the Does, and each of them, by such 22 fictitious names, and Red Whale will seek leave of the Court to amend this Complaint to 23 allege such true names and capacities when the same are ascertained.

24 5. Red Whale is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each 25 of the Defendants was the agent, employee, and/or alter-ego of each of the other
26 remaining Defendants and, at all times relevant hereto, acted within the course and scope 27 of such agency and/or employment.

Venue

6. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b) and (c).

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

7. Since 2003, and in connection with its substantial commercial use of the RED WHALE mark (the "Mark"), Red Whale has continuously owned and operated Red Whale Coffee, which sells brewed coffee, coffee beans, apparel, drinkware and gift cards under the Mark. Through Red Whale's efforts, the Mark has become a recognized mark throughout the United States with tremendous goodwill, and the Mark is widely and favorably recognized and relied upon by consumers in the coffee industry as indicating high quality goods and services originating exclusively from Red Whale.

8. In 2012, Red Whale relocated from Canada to California, where it has continued to operate and grow its business.

9. As a result of Red Whale's extensive sales and advertising, the Mark is inherently distinctive or has developed secondary meaning, such that its primary significance is that it has become known by consumers in the coffee industry as a symbol for high quality goods and services that originate exclusively from Red Whale, including for the highest quality brewed coffee and roasted coffee beans with the best possible flavor, for a commitment to best practices in the coffee industry, and for high quality apparel and drinkware. Red Whale's customers recognize its commitment to a positive influence on the global community via its Chef Education and other community education projects using the "Red Whale" name and logo.

10. To protect the extensive goodwill symbolized by the Mark, Red Whale sought and obtained for its Mark a federal character mark registration on the Principal Register of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ("USPTO"), Registration No. 5,018,142, with a registration date of August 9, 2016, for use in connection with, among other things, coffee, coffee beans, roasted coffee beans, drinkware such as coffee cups, and apparel such as shirts, sweatshirts, and aprons (the "Registration"). Red Whale first

1 used the Mark in commerce no later than December 31, 2003. Red Whale also owns a
2 related registration on the Principal Register of the USPTO, Registration No. 5,038,058,
3 for a "Red Whale" design mark. A true and correct copy of the USPTO registration
4 certificate for the Registration is attached as Exhibit A.

5 11. Red Whale also owns registered and common law rights in other 6 trademarks aside from the Mark. For example, Red Whale sought and obtained a federal 7 design mark registration on the USPTO's Principal Register, Registration No. 5038058,
8 depicting a red whale for use in connection with, among other things, coffee, coffee
9 beans, roasted coffee beans, drinkware such as coffee cups, and café services.

10 12. Red Whale is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that in 11 July 2015 Defendant opened a coffee shop under and in connection with the BLUE
12 WHALE mark, with full knowledge of Red Whale's prior and extensive use of the Mark
13 and without authorization, license, or other permission by Red Whale to use the Mark or 14 any mark confusingly similar thereto.

15 13. Red Whale is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Red
16 Whale's first use of the Mark in 2003 precedes Defendant's first use of the BLUE
17 WHALE mark by at least twelve years.

18 14. Red Whale is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 19 Defendant is using the BLUE WHALE mark, a name, and a logo that are all confusingly
20 similar to Red Whale's distinctive Mark for the purpose of promoting and selling brewed 21 coffee and apparel – i.e., several of the exact same categories of goods marketed and 22 distributed by Red Whale in connection with its Mark.

23 15. Since coffee beans are a natural expansion of the brewed coffee sales that 24 Defendant already undertakes under the BLUE WHALE mark, Red Whale is informed
25 and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant intends to expand the goods it
26 sells in connection with the BLUE WHALE mark to include coffee beans and roasted 27 coffee beans in competition with Red Whale.

16. Despite multiple requests by Red Whale, Defendant has refused to cease all use of: (a) the BLUE WHALE mark, any colorable imitations thereof, and any mark that is confusingly similar to Red Whale's Mark; and (2) social media applications to promote the BLUE WHALE brand, including without limitation Defendant's Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/bluewhalecoffeeco>. Instead, Red Whale is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant continues to operate its coffee shop and sell brewed coffee under the BLUE WHALE mark that is confusingly similar to Red Whale's Mark.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

Trademark Infringement Under The Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114

17. Red Whale realleges and incorporates herein by this reference the allegations of paragraphs 1 through 16 above as though each was fully set forth below.

18. The Mark is a valid, protectable mark owned by Red Whale, and the primary significance of the Mark is that it is known by the relevant consuming public as a source indicator for Red Whale's products.

19. Defendant's unlicensed and unauthorized use of any colorable variation of the Mark, including without limitation the BLUE WHALE mark, in connection with selling brewed coffee and apparel has caused and/or is likely to cause mistake or confusion or deception in the minds of relevant consumers, such as coffee enthusiasts, concerning the source of goods or services marketed and distributed in connection with the Mark.

20. Because Red Whale has no control over the nature of Defendant's unlicensed and unauthorized use of the Mark and/or any mark confusingly similar thereto, Red Whale has been and is continuing to be damaged by Defendant's unlicensed and unauthorized use of the Mark and/or any mark confusingly similar thereto.

21. Red Whale is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant knew, or should have known, of Red Whale's rights in and to the Mark, and

1 that Defendant's adoption and continued use of the confusingly similar BLUE WHALE
2 mark was knowing, willful, deliberate, and done with the intention of trading upon the 3 goodwill built up by Red Whale in the Mark and Red Whale's business.

4 22. Defendant's use of the BLUE WHALE mark has caused, and unless 5 restrained and enjoined by this Court will continue to cause, substantial, immediate, and
6 irreparable injury to Red Whale's business, reputation, and goodwill for which Red
7 Whale is without an adequate remedy at law. Red Whale is therefore entitled to 8 injunctive relief as against Defendant in connection with Defendant's unlicensed and 9 unauthorized use of the BLUE WHALE mark.

10 23. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's adoption and continued
11 use of the BLUE WHALE mark, Red Whale has suffered and continues to suffer injury,
12 loss, and damages in an amount to be proven at trial. Based on Defendant's actions and 13 omissions alleged herein, Red Whale is entitled to injunctive relief, monetary damages,
14 and other remedies provided by Sections 1116, 1117, and 1118 of the Lanham Act,
15 including without limitation Defendant's profits, treble damages, reasonable attorneys'
16 fees, costs, and prejudgment interest.

17 SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

18 False Designation of Origin Under The Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)

19 24. Red Whale realleges and incorporates herein by this reference the 20 allegations of paragraphs 1 through 16 above as though each was fully set forth below.

21 25. Red Whale has no control over the nature and quality of the goods and 22 services provided by Defendant. As a result of Defendant's unlicensed and unauthorized 23 use of the BLUE WHALE mark which is confusingly similar to Red Whale's Mark, any 24 failures, neglects, or faults by Defendant in providing its goods and services has reflected 25 and will reflect adversely on Red Whale as the believed source and origin thereof,
26 hampering efforts by Red Whale to continue to protect its reputation for quality goods 27

1 and resulting in a loss of sales thereof and its considerable expenditures to promote its 2 goods under the Mark, all to the irreparable harm of Red Whale.

3 26. Defendant's use of the BLUE WHALE mark constitutes false designations
4 of origin, false or misleading descriptions, and/or false or misleading representations.

5 27. Defendant's use of the BLUE WHALE mark is likely, within the meaning
6 of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a), to cause confusion, to cause mistake, or to deceive consumers
7 into believing falsely that Defendant's business is affiliated, connected, and/or associated 8 with Red Whale's business and/or that Red Whale has sponsored and/or approved of 9 Defendant's goods or services or commercial activities undertaken in connection with the 10 BLUE WHALE mark.

11 28. The actions and omissions by Defendant in connection with its use of the 12 BLUE WHALE mark constitutes unfair competition vis-à-vis Red Whale and is an 13 infringement of Red Whale's rights in its RED WHALE mark in violation of the Lanham
14 Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a).

15 29. Red Whale is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all 16 relevant times Defendant knew, or should have known, of Red Whale's rights in and to 17 the Mark and that the Mark is a source indicator of Red Well's products and services and 18 thus, Defendant's false descriptions, false representations, and false designations of origin
19 with respect to Defendant's use of the BLUE WHALE mark were knowing, willful, and 20 deliberate and done with the intention of trading upon the goodwill built up by Red 21 Whale in the Mark and Red Whale's business.

22 30. Defendant's use of the BLUE WHALE mark has caused, and unless 23 restrained and enjoined by this Court will continue to cause, substantial, immediate, and
24 irreparable injury to Red Whale's business, reputation, and goodwill for which Red
25 Whale is without an adequate remedy at law. Red Whale is therefore entitled to 26 injunctive relief as against Defendant in connection with Defendant's false descriptions, 27 false representations, and false designations of origin related to Defendant's use of the

1 BLUE WHALE mark.

2 31. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's adoption and continued
3 use of the BLUE WHALE mark, Red Whale has suffered and continues to suffer injury,
4 loss, and damages in an amount to be proven at trial. Based on Defendant's actions and
5 omissions alleged herein, Red Whale is entitled to injunctive relief, monetary damages,
6 and other remedies provided by Sections 1116, 1117, and 1118 of the Lanham Act,
7 including without limitation Defendant's profits, treble damages, reasonable attorneys'
8 fees, costs, and prejudgment interest.

9 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

10 WHEREFORE, Red Whale prays for entry of a judgment in its favor and against 11 Defendants as follows:

12 1. For a permanent injunction restraining Defendants, their officers, 13 managers, agents, servants, employees, representatives, attorneys, assigns, and all other 14 persons in active concert or participation with them from:

15 (a) Using the BLUE WHALE mark, or any other trademark or service
16 mark that is confusingly similar to the RED WHALE mark, as the whole or any part of a 17 business name in connection with the sale of coffee, coffee beans, roasted coffee beans, 18 or apparel;

19 (b) Using the BLUE WHALE mark, or any trademark or service mark
20 that is confusingly similar to the RED WHALE mark, in connection with the advertising, 21 sale, or promotion of coffee, coffee beans, roasted coffee beans, apparel, or any other 22 products related thereto; and

23 (c) Holding out in any manner whatsoever that Defendants or 24 Defendants' goods are in any way sponsored by, associated with, connected to, or 25 affiliated with Red Whale or Red Whale's business.

26 2. That Defendants be directed to deliver to Red Whale for destruction all 27 materials of any nature whatsoever bearing the BLUE WHALE mark, or any trademark

1 or service mark that is confusingly similar to the RED WHALE mark, pursuant to 15
2 U.S.C. § 1118;

3 3. That Defendants be required to make an accounting to Red Whale and be 4 directed to pay over to Red Whale all gains, profits, and advantages realized by 5 Defendants from Defendants' advertisement and/or sale of goods and/or services in 6 connection with the BLUE WHALE mark or any other mark that is confusingly similar to 7 the RED WHALE mark, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117;

8 4. That Defendants be directed to pay to Red Whale all damages suffered by 9 Red Whale in connection with the allegations herein, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117;

10 5. That Defendants be directed to pay Red Whale's reasonable attorney's fees
11 and all costs connected with this action, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117;

12 6. That Defendants be directed to pay to Red Whale prejudgment interest at 13 the maximum rate permitted by law;

14 7. That Defendants be directed to pay to Red Whale punitive and exemplary 15 damages in an amount to be determined at trial; and 16 For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
